Miko acquires the UK based 'The Office Coffee Company'

Turnhout, 31 August 2018 . Miko, the Euronext Brussels listed specialist in coffee service and plastic packaging, today announced the acquisition of the UK based 'The Office Coffee Company'. With 16 coffee specialists it achieves a turnover of close to 2 million euro.

Frans Van Tilborg, CEO of the Miko Group: 'The purpose of this acquisition is to increase our presence in the UK office market, and to become less dependent on horeca.'

ABOUT MIKO

Miko has been active in coffee service for over 200 years and in plastic packaging for some 45 years now, and was floated on Euronext Brussels in 1998. Miko follows a 'two-pillar strategy' in which its core activities 'coffee service and plastic packaging' are practically independent entities with their own management, so that each activity can follow its own growth path. The Group posted a turnover of EUR 205 million in 2017, with the coffee service and plastics processing division accounting for respectively 53 % and 47 % of this figure. Miko is an international group with companies in Belgium, France, UK, the Netherlands, Germany, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Poland, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Indonesia and Australia.
