

Ms. Inge Bruynooghe (1973) is a senior leader having gained broad international experience in managing procurement, operations and supply chain, thereby gaining recognition of strong leadership, strategy, change management and project management.

Besides having obtained her degree in Commercial Engineering at the Catholic University of Leuven (KUL) (Belgium), Ms. Inge Bruynooghe completed a Master of Business Administration (MBA) at Cornell University (Ithaca, NY, USA).

Throughout her professional career Ms. Inge Bruynooghe successfully held various senior management roles within Philips, and this in an international context having worked in China, the Netherlands and Belgium. As such she has been engaged in roles such as (amongst others) Director Philips Lighting China Sourcing Group (CN), Head of Supply Chain and Business transformation leader BG Lamps (NL) and Managing Director for Philips Lighting Turnhout (BE).

Ms. Inge Bruynooghe equally serves as a member of the Board of Directors of “Flanders Make”, which is a strategic research center focusing on production industry, the “Open Manufacturing Campus” and of “Agoria Vlaanderen”.